

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The cable ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

If we are fighting for freedom, we must be vigilant to protect freedom at home. A free press (media) is a cornerstone of our democracy. Have we forgotten the stories of what happens with a controlled press?
